L'ORÉAL

United Nations Global Compact
Communication On Progress (“COP”) 2014

Advanced Level

About this document

L'Oréal has been a signatory of the United Nations Global Compact since 2003 and is a member of the French network of the Global Compact (Global Compact France).

L'Oréal is committed to supporting the ten principles of the UN Global Compact relating to Human Rights, labour standards, the environment and the fight against corruption as well as reporting and communicating annually to its stakeholders on progress made to implement these principles.

L'Oréal is reporting according to the UN Global Compact "Advanced Level" and describes how it meets the 21 criteria of this Level in the following areas:

- Implementation of the Ten principles into Strategies & Operations
- Robust Human Rights Management Policies & Procedures
- Robust Labour Management Policies & Procedures
- Robust Environmental Management Policies & Procedures
- Robust Anti-Corruption Management Policies & Procedures
- Taking Action in Support of Broader UN Goals and Issues
- Corporate Sustainability Governance and Leadership

It reflects our self-assessment on how we have met the UN Global Compact Advanced Level criteria. We consider that a criterion is met when we communicated its implementation or planned implementation of one or more of the commonly accepted best practices suggested under each criterion.

As a signatory of the Women's Empowerment Principles (WEPs), L'Oréal furthermore reports according to the WEPs Reporting on Progress Guidance.

Information in L'Oréal's 2014 COP is namely compiled from our 2014 Annual Report (Annual Registration document), 2014 "Sharing Beauty With All" Progress Report and 2014 GRI Report.

For information on external assurance, see 2014 GRI Report, G4 33

L'Oréal's COP is available on L'Oréal's Corporate website (www.loreal.com).

STATEMENT OF CONTINUED SUPPORT

Extract from Jean-Paul AGON's statement in 2014
"Sharing Beauty with All" Progress Report

"...For more than 10 years we have been supporting and implementing the principles of the United Nations Global Compact, a commitment that we renewed in 2014. Our sustainability policy flows from L'Oréal's Code of Ethics and our strong Ethical Principles - Integrity, Respect, Courage and Transparency. Through "Sharing Beauty With All", we wanted to go even further. Its new commitments, which are both practical and ambitious, cover our entire value chain.

Ultimately they will transform our Group, and the ways in which we innovate, make our products, communicate with our consumers and share our growth with the communities around us. This represents a profound paradigm shift..."

Jean-Paul Agon,

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

The Group screens its contracts with security service providers acting for or in the Group's environment. Local entities namely verify qualifications, official and international accreditations and personnel training. Approval from the Group's Security Division must be sought before choosing a new service provider or renewing an agreement with a current service provider. Where locally possible, L'Oréal favours security service companies that have adhered to the International Code of Conduct for Private Security Service Providers (in particular for compliance with Human Rights) developed on the basis of the Montreux Document, an official document of the United Nations.

Access to child and dependent care	Local initiatives address child and dependent care issues, such as working time arrangements, kinder gardens for young children (India), a breastfeeding room (Malaysia, Dubai) etc. In France, L'Oréal worked with the SOS Prema Association to launch a Parenthood Charter which is supported by the Ministry of Labour. To date, 482 companies have signed the Charter. This initiative is a testimony to L'Oréal's commitment to promote a work environment where working parents can better manage their professional and family lives. A Parenthood Observatory was created to support this Charter.
Support for pregnant women and those returning from maternity leave	In order to avoid maternity leaves and parenthood having a negative effect on the career of women at L'Oréal, various initiatives have been taken. The L'Oréal Share & Care programme is namely quite unique because it aims to ensure that women working at L'Oréal can benefit from a maternity leave of a minimum of 14 weeks, paid at 100%, in all countries.

Recruitment and retention, including training and development, of female employees	In recruitment the goal is to achieve a balanced recruitment in all functions. L'Oréal carries out a specific action to increase the representation of women in some Business Units or functions where women are underrepresented (IT, Operations). For example, in IT functions, L'Oréal participates in mentoring programmes for undergraduate students: "Capital Filles", "Women in Digital".
Education and training opportunities for women workers	In order to allow women to enhance their leadership skills, L'Oréal participates in many leadership trainings and conferences. For example, L'Oréal is an official partner of the EVE Programme since its creation with Danone. The EVE programme is a women leadership programme which aims at working both on the individuals and on the organisation, as it offers to work on one's evolution in order to bring change in the organisation. Created in February 2011 to continue the conversation, network & empowerment of the EVE programme participants, "EVE le blog" was launched. It is the only French-speaking medium that is dedicated to female leadership. L'Oréal, as one of the editorial members, shares best practices on the blog and exchanges information with the other members (Danone, Crédit Agricole, KPMG France, Orange). In 2014, on the initiative of L'Oréal and Danone, EVE Asia-Pacific was launched in October in Shanghai. Over 120 women from different companies and sectors took part in the experience. Our goal for 2015 is to expand this programme to Latin America to allow women from the region to participate more easily.
